

A2Z CAFE

4705 E. 96th St., Indianapolis
(317) 569-9349 • www.a2zcafe.com

Searching for a restaurant that satisfies the entire family? Look no further. A2Z Cafe is a family-owned restaurant specializing in delicious dishes served in comfortable setting and is known for customizing plates for kids. Even the name spells family. Ash and Zulma, the husband and wife owners of A2Z, combined their initials with that of their four-year-old son, Antonio; Ash + Zulma + Antonio = A2Z. The math may be funny but the food is seriously good.

For breakfast, A2Z offers items ranging from hearty to healthy. The fresh fruit bowl is a great starter if you're dining with impatient little ones or are in the mood for lighter fare. A seasonal variation of sliced plums, mangos, peaches, pineapples and other succulent fruits are delivered fresh from the orchard to your linen cloth-covered table, quenching your mid-summer taste for all things juicy and sweet. And speaking of sweet, cinnamon swirled French toast is another meal sure to satisfy grown-ups and kids alike.

If it's the classics you crave, opt for the sausage feast or the goat cheese omelet. The first combines potatoes, sausage gravy and eggs cooked over easy with a side of toast while the omelet is stuffed to "doggie-bag-required" proportion with creamy basil goat cheese, ham, tomatoes and sautéed mushrooms. For breakfast outside the box, try the pesto skillet, a made to order blend of eggs, bacon, ham, mushrooms, potatoes and provolone cheese. And don't forget the coffee. A2Z serves a cup of gourmet coffee that has regulars going ga-ga.

The lunch and dinner menus offer something special, too. The grilled three cheese sandwich, consisting of goat, provolone and cheddar cheeses and served with tomato soup, is a tasty paradox—exotic comfort food. The penne gorgonzola, a pasta dish of chicken, bacon and gorgonzola cream sauce is a customer creation so popular it was added to the menu. As for salads, the hazelnut goat cheese salad with grilled figs and balsamic reduction is extraordinary. Stop by Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday night for the Filet Mignon special. A steal at $16.99, it's topped with a rich bacon and gorgonzola cream sauce and served with garlic bread.

Whoever your guests, whether a first date or the family tree, A2Z Cafe's cozy, candlelit dining room and delectable menu items are sure to satisfy.

Story: Amanda Cargill; Photos: Marc Lebryk

NOW SERVING DINNER TUESDAY-SATURDAY

Hours: Mon-Fri 7am-2pm; Saturday 8am-2pm; Dinner Hours: Tues-Sat 5-9pm

• Non-Smoking • Credit Cards Accepted • Reservations Accepted for Dinner • Beer & Wine Available